TUDOR STYLE!

Be Part of History...

Enjoy an exclusive night at the Mary Rose Museum!

Ever wondered what life was like in Tudor times?

Find out during an action packed evening at the Mary Rose!

Complete 4 sections of your Blast from the Past Go For It

Have fun and find out about Tudor life. Join in with group activities including:

Dance the Night Away

No hip hop, just clip clop!

You'll be surprised by Tudor dance moves!

Games Galore

No TV, no MP3 players, no computers.

Try Nine Men's Morris, Quoits and other Tudor toys

Take Aim—Fire!

Work as a team to load the canon, take aim... Fire!

Say What?

Dress as a Tudor sailor, a court lady or even the King!

Learn how to talk Tudor, bow and curtsy

I enjoyed firing the canon because we did it as a team and it was fun!

What surprised me most was dancing like a horse!

What surprised me most about our visit was how different life was in Tudor times and how active the evening was!

Come and enjoy an exclusive evening at the
Mary Rose Museum

What better place for girls to experience history up close than in the Mary Rose Museum in Portsmouth Historic Dockyard which houses about 1000 original Tudor artefacts?

You will have exclusive use of the Mary Rose Museum.

All activities are led by our museum team. After a short introductory film, guides will complete a roundabout of activities in small groups.

Sessions by arrangement approximately 18:00-19:45

Minimum number: 20 girls

Maximum: 35 girls

Small packs or groups are welcome to join together

Cost: £4 per girl (inc.VAT) (Adult helpers free)

Travel

The Hard Bus Interchange, Portsmouth Harbour station and the Gosport Ferry are all within 5 minutes walk from the Museum. There is no car parking on site but girls can be dropped off and picked up at the Hard.

Shopping

By special arrangement a selection of appropriate pocket money items from the gift shop can be made available. If shopping, we suggest girls only bring between £1.00 and £5.00.
